INSTRUCTIONS

Claims presented under the Federal Tort Claims Act should be submitted directly to the "appropriate Federal agency" whose employee(s) was involved in the incident. If the incident involves more than one claimant, each claimant should submit a separate claim form.

Complete all items - Insert the word NONE where applicable.

A CLAIM SHALL BE DEEMED TO HAVE BEEN PRESENTED WHEN A FEDERAL AGENCY RECEIVES FROM A CLAIMANT, HIS DULY AUTHORIZED AGENT, OR LEGAL REPRESENTATIVE, AN EXECUTED STANDARD FORM 95 OR OTHER WRITTEN NOTIFICATION OF AN INCIDENT, ACCOMPANIED BY A CLAIM FOR MONEY

Failure to completely execute this form or to supply the requested material within two years from the date the claim accrued may render your claim invalid. A claim is deemed presented when it is received by the appropriate agency, not when it is mailed.

If instruction is needed in completing this form, the agency listed in item #1 on the reverse side may be contacted. Complete regulations pertaining to claims asserted under the Federal Tort Claims Act can be found in Title 28, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 14. Many agencies have published supplementing regulations. If more than one agency is involved, please state each agency.

The claim may be filed by a duly authorized agent or other legal representative, provided evidence satisfactory to the Government is submitted with the claim establishing express authority to act for the claimant. A claim presented by an agent or legal representative must be presented in the name of the claimant. If the claim is signed by the agent or legal representative, it must show the title or legal capacity of the person signing and be accompanied by evidence of his/her authority to present a claim on behalf of the claimant as agent, executor, administrator, parent, guardian or other representative.

If claimant intends to file for both personal injury and property damage, the amount for each must be shown in item #12 of this form.

DAMAGES IN A SUM CERTAIN FOR INJURY TO OR LOSS OF PROPERTY, PERSONAL INJURY, OR DEATH ALLEGED TO HAVE OCCURRED BY REASON OF THE INCIDENT. THE CLAIM MUST BE PRESENTED TO THE APPROPRIATE FEDERAL AGENCY WITHIN TWO YEARS AFTER THE CLAIM ACCRUES.

The amount claimed should be substantiated by competent evidence as follows:

(a) In support of the claim for personal injury or death, the claimant should submit a written report by the attending physician, showing the nature and extent of injury, the nature and extent of treatment, the degree of permanent disability, if any, the prognosis, and the period of hospitalization, or incapacitation, attaching itemized bills for medical, hospital, or burial expenses actually incurred.

(b) In support of claims for damage to property, which has been or can be economically repaired, the claimant should submit at least two itemized signed statements or estimates by reliable, disinterested concerns, or, if payment has been made, the itemized signed receipts evidencing payment.

(c) In support of claims for damage to property which is not economically repairable, or if the property is lost or destroyed, the claimant should submit statements as to the original cost of the property, the date of purchase, and the value of the property, both before and after the accident. Such statements should be by disinterested competent persons, preferably reputable dealers or officials familiar with the type of property damaged, or by two or more competitive bidders, and should be certified as being just and correct.

(d) Failure to specify a sum certain will render your claim invalid and may result in forfeiture of your rights.

RIDER

6. Claimant became aware of the potential exposure within the last two years.
8. Basis of Claim (state in detail the known facts and circumstances attending the damage, injury or death, identifying the persons and property involved, the place of occurrence and the cause thereof. Use additional pages if necessary.)

that the trailer housing units provided to claimant were suitable for their intended use. The U.S. and its agencies, including but not limited to FEMA, failed to properly inspect the units to make certain that they were in compliance with all local, state, federal and international regulations and standards. The U.S. and its agencies, including but not limited to FEMA, provided trailer housing units that failed to adhere to express and/or implied warranties of habitability and fitness. The U.S. and its agencies, including but not limited to FEMA, failed to warn claimant that claimant was being exposed to dangerously high levels of formaldehyde. The U.S. and its agencies, including but not limited to FEMA, failed to provide the proper specifications to the manufacturers of the trailer housing units to ensure that they were in compliance with all local, state, federal and international regulations and standards. The U.S. and its agencies, including but not limited to FEMA, intentionally and with reckless indifference to the safety of claimant and the public in general, concealed and knowledge of the excessive levels of formaldehyde in the trailer housing units. The U.S. and its agencies, including but not limited to FEMA, failed to immediately relocate the claimant after learning of the excessive levels of formaldehyde, further exposing claimant and failed to provide medical care for those suffering from such exposure injuries. The U.S. and its agencies, including but not limited to FEMA, has engaged in a concerted effort to "cover up" and conceal testing results of the formaldehyde levels in the trailer units provide to claimant and others. The foregoing actions by the U.S. and its agents were in violation of and constituted a deprivation of the claimant's state and federal constitutional rights, privileges and immunities. The claimant is demanding all damages recoverable under the applicable state constitutions, the Constitution of the United States, 42 USC section 1983, and all applicable law, state and federal statutes or ordinances, which allow for recovery of damages flowing from the deprivation of a constitutional right, privilege or immunity. Moreover, the U.S. and its agencies, including but not limited to FEMA, are liable under all state tort law remedies found applicable herein.

10. The claimant has suffered from eye, nose and/or throat irritation, nose bleeds, headaches, nausea, asthma like symptoms and respiratory problems, shortness of breath, emotional distress, fear of illness, including cancer and/or increased risk of cancer. The full residual effects are yet unknown, but are serious in nature. And foregoing are a direct result of exposure to excessive levels of formaldehyde, a known carcinogen. The claimant has and will continue to suffer, and experience fear, anxiety and distress because of the risk of latent and/or future disease resulting from the exposure. Claimant will require medical monitoring for life to check for signs of formaldehyde based injury. Claimant is also claiming all damages, flowing from the deprivation of constitutional rights, privileges and immunities as set forth in #8 (SUPRA).
